Join Brenda at her training facility, in Midland, Michigan to solve these problems and more, using protocols that she has developed and used successfully with dogs of every breed and every temperament and handlers from beginner to expert.

Relationships are built on the Dynamic Between You so You will Learn About...

- What is desensitization and how to use it to dynamically calm your dog.
- Your dog is looking for “body language” not verbal language. What does that mean in training terms?
- Pressure - Muscle Tension - who cares? Why should I care?
Because your dog does, that's why!

- Teach your dog how to respond not react!
- Does the environment win? It doesn't have to.

Lol and thank you for the consultation today. I'm already seeing improvements although we still have a ways to go. I'm attaching a couple pics from class tonight of my calm dog, I love seeing the softness in his face....thank you!! - Terri K

Hey, B. I wanted to share with you that your simple and elegant “Get Connected” techniques have made me a much better trainer. Thank you for the work you have put into proofing these. They've made such a difference for a number of dogs and families I've worked with. I've learned so much from you . . . Dr. C at HAWS Shelter, Wisconsin
